

Cookie Policy

As BİTCİ TEKNOLOJİ A.Ş. (hereinafter, “Company”), we show maximum sensitivity and care to the processing of personal data of our visitor in accordance with the Law on Protection of Personal Data No. 6698 and other relevant legislation. We would like to point out that we use cookies through our web site (www.bitci.com) and our application (“Platform”). The purpose of this Cookie Clarification Text is to inform you about the types and purposes of use of the cookies that are obtained by the users/visitors’ usage of the Platforms operated by us.

What is a Cookie?

Cookies are small text files that mostly consist of letters and numbers, and those Cookies are stored on your computer or mobile device (“Device”) when you visit a web site, allowing the device in question to be identified.

By Which Methods Are Cookies Collected and For What Legal Reasons?

In case you visit our Platforms, in order for you to benefit from our Platforms, in this regard, your personal data will be processed on the basis of legally exercising the rights through the technically mandatory and permanent cookies and analytical cookies.

What Types of Cookies Are Used?

Our Platforms use first-party cookies (cookies that are placed by the site you are visiting). Below you can find the different types of cookies we use on our Platforms:

Mandatory (Basic) Cookies: These cookies are mandatory for our Platforms to work properly and for you to benefit from its features and services. For example, authentication cookies, which are activated when you log in to our Platforms, ensure that your active session continues as you switch from one page to another on our web site. Disabling these cookies may result in services and features to become unavailable.

Persistent Cookies: These are the cookies that are used to increase the functionality of the Platforms and to provide a faster and better service to our visitors and they are valid until they are deleted by you through your browsers or until the expiration date. These types of cookies are used to remember the choices you make and to personalize your use of the web site. These cookies include the cookies that save your password and keep your web site session open, saving you the hassle of entering your password more than once during each visit, and cookies that remember and recognize you on subsequent visits to the web site.

Functional and Analytical Cookies: Including from where you connect to the web site, what content you view on the Platform and the duration of your visit, these cookies are used to determine how you use the Platforms.

Which Cookies Are Used for Which Purposes?

Limited to the purposes stated below, and in accordance with the KVK (Protection of Personal) legislation, as a Company, we use cookies on our Platforms for various purposes and we process your personal data through these cookies. These purposes are mainly:

-To perform the basic functions necessary for the Platforms to work: For example, the logged-in members do not need to re-enter their password while visiting different pages on the Platforms, ensuring that your active session continues when you switch from one page to another on our site. Disabling these cookies may cause services and features to become unavailable.

-To analyze the Platforms and to increase the performance of the Platforms: For example, integration of different servers on which the Platforms works, determining the number of visitors to the Platforms and adjusting performance accordingly, or making it easier for visitors to find what they are looking for.

To Whom and for What Purposes Can Cookies Be Transferred?

Your personal data processed in the activities that constitute the subject of the Cookie Clarification Text are shared with authorized legal public institutions in judicial processes.

The Company matches the information collected online and offline through different methods, or the information collected from you on the Platforms at different times, and uses this information together with the information from other sources such as third parties.

How Can You Control Cookie Usage?

To use the Platforms, the usage of the cookies is not mandatory; you have the opportunity to customize your preferences regarding cookies by changing the settings of your browser.

If you set your browser to block all cookies, then, you can continue to use the Platforms; however, you may not be able to access to the Platforms or may have a limited access to all functions of the Platforms and quality of your user experience may decrease.
